PAROLES GELÉES

REPRESENTATIONS OF REMEMBRANCE

Ce serait le moment de philosopher et de rechercher si, par hasard, se trouvait ici l'endroit où de telles paroles dégèlent.

In developing and organizing this conference, many members of the UCLA community and beyond were formative in our work. First and foremost, Professor Lia Brozgal helped us to develop and realize our theme while also using her professional network to put us in contact with Professor Golsan. To all participants and volunteers, we extend our thanks for contributing to the 18th annual conference. For their generous contributions, we thank the UCLA Center for Student Programming, the UCLA Graduate Students Association, the UCLA Mellon Program, the UCLA African Studies Center, the Department of English, the History Department, and the UCLA Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies. Most of all, we would like to thank the Department of French and Francophone Studies for their continued support, particularly our chair Malina Stefanovska and the staff Alison Kershner, Alexandra Gomez and Dacia Imakura. We would like to express a special thanks to all those who submitted to this volume of Paroles Gelées and to the UCLA Graduate Students Association for their continued support in publishing this journal.
