Laura Franklin Memorial Award

The Laura Franklin Memorial Award is offered in memory of Laura Franklin, a graduate student in the Department of Italian who passed away May 2, 1982. The $100 annual award, initiated by the Italian Graduate Student Association and friends, is granted for an outstanding essay on literature or art history of the Italian Middle Ages or Renaissance. All such essays submitted to Carte Italiane by January 15, will automatically be considered for the award.

The recipient of the 1984-85 award was Deborah Parker, for her essay: The Trecento Commentators' Interpretation of Exile in the Commedia.
